Death Angel Claims Well Known Sonoma Valley Residents

IMPROVEMENTS AT BOYES SPRINGS FOR DECORATION DAY

Thousands of People Expected to Attend Three Opening Days of Sonoma Valley's Famous Resort.

From present indications not less than 10,000 people from all sections will attend the opening festivities on Decoration Day at Boyes Springs, for which a program of unusual interest has been arranged. Special events that will characterize the opening as a carnival of pleasure, are to make the first three days commencing Saturday, May 30th, a period of frolic such as has never been known at any California summer resort.

The palatial new motion picture theatre and the large maple floor dancing pavilion, as well as the large mineral water swimming tank, will be appropriately dedicated on Decoration Day. Under the shelter of its glass roof, swimming and diving exhibitions in the monster tank are to be held night and day, while first run pictures will be screened in the theatre, and dancing will afford pleasure to its devotees. With all the attractions, indoors and outdoors, there will be none too young or too old to enjoy every minute at the resort until the lights go out.

Fred F. Partridge and R. G. Lichtenberg have put no limit on the expenditure to make the new and greater Boyes Springs a resort that will not be lacking in anything for the unrestricted delight of the public, and permit the famous curative mineral water to share the greater fame that Boyes Springs is to acquire.

Already over $50,000 is going into the work of rebuilding and developing the surroundings into a most picturesque playground. A building program for the expenditure of much more money will go on during the season, to emphasize the popular saying that "you haven't seen California until you have visited Boyes Springs."

J. E. Johnson, structural steel contractor of San Francisco, has been here this week to arrange for the placing of the big steel frame over the swimming tank, the glass dome of the luxurious pool at Boyes will soon be a reality. Mr. Johnson has been identified with Palace Hotel construction in San Francisco, and also with state work on the Dawson memorial hall at Eldridge. He is enthusiastic over the future of the new Boyes Springs and Sonoma Valley.

WOULD FORCE SON TO PAY FATHER'S BOARD

C. Poncia was in court this week seeking to compel J. Adamis to pay a board bill said to have been contracted by Adamis father, Francisco Quattrocolo. Adamis claims that he offered his father a good home with him in San Francisco, but he refused to leave Sonoma Valley, going instead to Poncia's home. The case was postponed for further inquiry.

Arthur Drake, the radio man, was in town from Santa Rosa Tuesday.

Quack! Quack! Mont P. Akers Now A Duck

Quack, quack, all you radio fans, and three cheers for Mont Akers, pioneer post master of Schellville. The Lake Merritt duck, famous over K L X, quacked his approval, shook his web-foot, and at once felt in the swim. The genial ducks are known far and wide over the air and Sonoma will tell the world that in adding Mont P. Akers' name to the flock( the society has made no mistake, for Mont is a regular fellow, always was and always will be. He lives in the duck country, too, and his philosophy is "what's good for the goose is good for the gander." Congratulations, Mont.

SONOMA MISSION BILL AWAITS SIGNATURE

The Slater bill, authorizing $2500 for the old Mission of Sonoma, property of the State of California, and mecca of many tourists, is among the many bills passed by the legislature, now awaiting Governor Richardson's signature.

The modest appropriation will enable the hallowed landmark to be kept up, protected from vandalism, and improved.

The Mission is the pride of this section of California and is the last of the chain of Missions built from San Diego north. It was acquired by voluntary subscription and presented to the State of California about 15 years ago. The Sonoma Valley Woman's Club was among the first organizations to make an appeal to save the old adobe from ruin and restored one wing of the crumbling landmark from their own funds before their appeal was heard and outside help came to the rescue.

Over 3000 visitors registered at the Mission last Sunday and interest in its quaint architecture—which should further be preserved and restored instead of the thoughtless modern improvements evident—is growing. Its proximity to the Bear Flag site on the Sonoma Plaza makes this Mission much sought out by travelers and lovers of tradition, for both landmarks spell the history of California, from the Mexican regime to the American occupation. California history is easily visualized by all who visit here.

Much credit is due Senator Slater for his eminent and effective work on behalf of our landmark.

WILL CONDUCT SIGHT SEEING TRIPS

F. A. Maley, well known property owner of Boyes Springs, will operate a sight seeing bus through the valley to all points of interest this summer. He started his trips yesterday and specializes on trips to the Buhbank home, Jack London place, the Sonoma Mission, Vallejo museum, Calistoga geysers and way points.

Mr. Maley is a good booster for the Valley of the Moon and will no doubt interest our visitors in its history and charm.

Four Companies Submit Prices for New Fire Fighting Unit For Sonoma

Bids for the new fire engine which the City of Sonoma is to acquire were opened at the regular May meeting of the city trustees Wednesday evening. The bids are as follows:

Waterouse on Reo chassis, $4700, f. o . b. Sonoma. $200 less if chemical is not desired.

Pacific Fire Extinguisher Company, $5250, or $5000 for an engine which has been used in demonstration.

Seagrave "Suburbanite," $6750.

American LaFrance $6000, or $5250 for an engine used in demonstration.

The city dads took the bids under consideration and will later select the engine best adapted to Sonoma's needs, and made the first payment on it from funds generously subscribed by citizens of the town and valley.

Owing to the small water mains throughout the town, the insurance rates will not be reduced as a result of the purchase of another engine. However, btter protection is assured the utility of a fire engine having been well demonstrated since Sonoma's acquirement of the sturdy little Waterous which is now to supplement the bigger new engine.

In conversation with the American LaFrance representative, it was gleaned that experts believe that the cistern or well owned by the city on the corner of the Plaza, Spain Street and First Street West is thought to be the best water source for fire fighting purposes in town. At 18 feet there can be pumped 300 gallons of water a minute, and the cistern supply can be augmented from the hydrants without endangering water mains in any way. This source, however, is limited to the zone in the immediate vicinity and shows the necessity of plenty of hose in case of a general conflagration.

Routine business transacted at the board meeting Wednesday included the auditing and payment of bills, marshal's report, etc. City Engineer Specht reported on several matters of street and sidewalk interest. The street committee was authorized to purchase 50 yards of gravel for improvement of streets.

Property owners on Second Street East, and elsewhere, will be requested to trim trees on their property.

The city engineer asked authority to demand a sketch of contemplated work before any plumbing is done within the city limits.

P. Lembeye, proprietor of the local laundry, asked the city for more protection by properly licensing outside laundry concerns who are competing in the local business field. Mr. Lembeye pointed out that he was investing in a fine building in Sonoma and should not be put at a disadvantage by itinerant laundry solicitors from other cities, who take money out of town. The matter was taken under consideration.

Miss Virginia Pomeroy Weds Percy J. McGuire

Thursday evening, in the presence of half a hundred relatives and close friends, Miss Virginia Pomeroy of Santa Rosa became the bride of Percy Joseph McGuire of San Francisco. The ceremony was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Pomeroy, with the Rev. Father J. M. Cassin officiating. Masses of white flowers, and tall white candles were used as a background for the bridal party.

The bride was indeed beautifuul. Her wedding gown of white crepe de chine was made with a close bodice and bouffant skirt, and hand embroidered. She wore a wedding veil, fashioned as a duchess cap, and bound with orange blossoms. The wedding bouquet was or orchids, gardenia and lillies of the valley, all white.

Miss Dorothea Daunt of Petaluma as bridesmaid, was gowned in a lovely frock of blond lace made over green silk. She carried an old fashioned bouquet. The groom, who is the son of John James McGuire of San Francisco, was supported by his brother, Ralph McGuire.

An informal reception and buffet supper followed the ceremony. Tall white candles in silver holders shed a soft glow over the bridal party, seated at a small table, rightly appointed. The bride's cake centered the table.

Congratulations and felicitations over, the bride and groom sped away on their honeymoon, which is to be spent at San Juan Capistrano, where Mr. McQuire has taken a villa for several weeks. The bride's going away gown was a rosewood ensemble, fashioned in straight lines. Upon their return from the South, the bride and groom will be at home to their many friends in San Franisco.

The bride, a nice of Mrs. Rae Hunter of Sonoma, is one of the most beautiful and popular girls in Sonoma county. Endowed with grace and talent as a dancer, she has often generously appeared on Sonoma programs.

Mr. McGuire, the groom, is a well known young advertising man, director of the Players' Club and patron of the arts.

Sonoma Valley friends wish Mr. and Mrs. McGuire the greatest happiness and success.

BARGAIN DAY SPECIALS

Sonoma's regular monthly bargain days will be the coming Monday and Tuesday. Merchants participating in the plan and offering special prices are G. H. Hotz, D. Eraldi, F. Clewe, S. A. Robinson, L. S. Simmons, W. E. Kiefer, Gottenberg Brothers, E. A. Hoyer, A. J. Martinson, Maffei Brothers, El Dorado Hotel, Batto & Sons, M. Burg, E. Coates and the Index-Tribune and M. G. Renslinger.

Shoes, sugar, jewelry, flapper curling irons, safety razors, bacon, gingham, sheets, newspapers, soap, tires, etc., are on the bargain list. Don't fail to shop with the progressive merchants who offer these bargains, on Monday and Tuesday.

Cruelty To Horse Brings Fine of $100

Chris Knudsten, Petaluma, dealer in the kind of old horses known as "chicken feeders," was found guilty of cruelty to animals and fined $100 here Wednesday. A jury brought in the verdict after instruction as to the evidence, given by Judge Justi of Glen Ellen, sitting for Judge Small. Charles Potter of Schellville, complaining witness, told the jury that Knudsten handled horses out of a car in which two poor animals, weakened and crowded, had fallen to the floor, one of them dead; that accused rolled the half dead animal out of the car, knocked it in the head and dragged it on a truck while still struggling.

DANCE TO FEATURE A BIG ORCHESTRA

The second dance given at Coney Island last Saturday night taxed the big pavilion to capacity. The attendance was even much larger than on the opnieng night and everyone had a splendid time.

The excellent music provided by Louis Parente, present proprietor of the Sonoma Valley amusement park, is attracting the attention of dancers for miles around and as a result automobiles were parked for blocks in the vicinity of the pavilion.

Tonight the regular weekly dance is to feature prize contests with big money prizes for the best steppers. The Ambassadors of Oakland, eight of them, declared to be the best syncopators in the West, will furnish the music. A lady jazz soloist will also entertain, a noted prima donna with popular repertoire.

Mr. Parente aims to book the best orchestras and attractions obtainable for Coney Island this season. The dances are ably managed by Harry Fine, with Al Hoffman as floor manager.

CALIENTE POPPY BOWL WILL OPEN ON MAY 16th

Tom Corcoran announces that the newly constructed Calinete Poppy Bowl, located in the Agua Caliente bath house, will have its opening on Saturday, May 16th.

The premiere will be featured by the introduction of a Kohler & Chase piano and Fitzgerald's Oakland Six Orchestra, which has been a big feature of the Knights of Columbus dances in Oakland all winter.

Mr. Corcoran is also installing a $400 radio set in the hotel and bath house, so that there will always be music in the air around Caliente this summer.

The Fitzgerald orchestra will play in the Poppy Bowl Sunday afternoon.

BATTERY CASE POSTPONED

The case of battery brought against the Mastelotti brothers by Paul Dolfini, charging them with creating a disturbance at the Depot Hotel, at Agua Caliente, was postponed this week.

COMMUNITY LOSES PROMINENT MEN THE PAST WEEK

Henry J. Wicker, O. L. Hose, Joseph Engisch, George Diebold and Frank DeMartini Cross Great Divide.

Henry J. Wicker, for many years a prominent resident of Sonoma, died at his beautiful home on Second Street East Tuesday. Some weeks ago he was stricken with paralysis, from which he never recovered. Up to the fatal last illness, Mr. Wicker had been a remarkably well preserved, active man, despite his 72 years. He was an ardent sportsman and as has been his custom for years, went on his annual deer hunt at the close of the last season, an event to which each year he looked forward.

Mr. Wicker, former prominent San Franciscan, made his home in Sonoma since the earthquake and fire. Prior to that he was for many years proprietor of the Goodfellows' Grotto popular San Francisco restaurant and headquarters of politicians and bon vivants. Mr. Wicker catered to good livers and his cuisine was famous from coast to coast. He had a big establishment, high class trade and many employees.

The restaurant was destroyed by the catastrophe of 1906, so its proprietor then engaged in the furniture business in the metropolis for a short time, later deciding to retire to Sonoma, girlhood home of his wife, a daughter of the pioneer Rufus family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wicker came to Sonoma and built one of the most beautiful homes here, highly cultivated the grounds and made it one of the valley's most attractive country places. Here Mr. Wicker spent his last years in ease and retirement, indulging himself in various hobbies and enjoying the rural beauties around him. He had traveled much in his earlier days and with Mrs. Wicker made a trip to his native Europe some years ago. He was a well read and informed man who enjoyed the company of kindred spirits and life in the great out of doors.

His widow, formerly Bertha Rufus, survives him, together with a sister and relatives in Germany.

Funeral services for deceased were strictly private, according to his wishes, and the remains were cremated in San Francisco.

EL VERANO NEWS

By ARCHIBALD McKIVER

Donald H. Fenn of Santa Rosa and Miss Alice Janella of San Francisco were married in that city last Friday. The pretty bride and her husband were guests of the Bonella family at Verano Saturday and on their departure from El Verano on Saturday evening's northbound S. P. Limited, were given a hearty send-off, being showered with rice by a number of friends and relatives. The newly-weds will make their home in Santa Rosa, where Mr. Fenn has resided for some time.

A. Gull of San Francisco was registered at Our Resort over the week end.

Sydney Smith, leading shiek of Haas Brothers, San Francisco, and Arthur West, of the same firm, were visitors at the West home here over Sunday.

Henry Koerner, resort owner, was transacting business in San Francisco Tuesday.

Mrs. Lane, of Sonoma, passed through El Verano Tuesday morning enroute to Berkeley.

The first cherries from the Hall ranch were expressed out of El Verano Tuesday morning by William E. Helberg, to Cordelia, where they will go in carload lots to Eastern markets, with cherries of that section.

Jimmie Sterling, former Sonoman, well known horse man and all around sport, who is now an uplifter of humanity (operating an elevator in one of San Francisco's skyscrapers) was a Sonoma Valley visitor Sunday, greeting his old time friends. Jimmie was enroute to Santa Rosa, where his wife is visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Norrbom were S. P. passengers for Oakland Monday morning, returning with two new Chevrolet cars, to be delivered to Sonoma buyers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Court of San Francisco are spending two weeks at their Sonoma Vista home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Johnstone returned to their home in San Francisco Monday after a pleasant visit at the Minkel home.

Miss Edna Trainor of San Francisco is the guest of Mrs. M. Watts for several weeks.

Two feeble minded girls escaped from the Eldridge home Sunday.

Bob McGill, S. P. employee, Sacramento, was here Sunday visiting his mother, who is quite ill.

Dr. Nufer, Sonoma veterinary, was an El Verano visitor recently. The doctor was looking the old town over and also had his eagle eye out for our pretty summer girls, who are now enjoying their annual vacation in El Verano.

Mrs. E. Hunt of Sacramento was spending several days here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Weaver. She returned to the capital city Sunday, accompanied by her husband, who furnished music for the Native Sons dance at Sonoma Saturday.

Herbert Ammann and Henry Locarnini, Mare Island mechanics were home visitors Sunday.

Joe Davis of Mare Island spent the week end here with his wife.

The Sonoma Native Sons' baseball team forfeited the game to El Verano's team last Sunday. Our local twirlers were on edge and ready to go, but the Natives evidently believed the El Verano team too strong. The local team now issues a challenge to any team in the valley and are anxious to get started. Archie McKiver has been asked to issue a challenge to Easy Jim's Vineburg All Stars.

Frank Bayoul and wife of San Francisco were visiting Sonoma Valley friends Sunday.

Carl Vincent and wife of San Francisco were visiting El Verano friends Sunday. They were accompanied by Leo Vincent.

Postmaster Levell of Novato was a visitor at the Zimmermann ranch Sunday.

George Matthews, well borer, was a business visitor to Oakland on Tuesday.

Mrs. M. Fish and daughters were spending the week end at their Sonoma Vista cottage. Miss Fish, a school teacher in Fresno, returned to that city Sunday morning.

Jimmy O'Connell, formerly of Boyes Springs and recently a major league ball player, has organized a baseball team in San Francisco called the O'Connell Stars. The new team with Jimmy at the head, should be a dandy. The former star will play first base and the initial game will be played at Eureka.

The El Verano grammar school base ball team went down to defeat at Sonoma last Friday, when they tackled the Sonoma grammar school. The Mission City boys were too much for the locals and after an exciting game the score was 7 to 6, in favor of Sonoma. A large number of local rooters attended hte game.

The Valley of the Moon was visited by many tourists over the week end. El Verano resorts registered many guests, who enjoyed the day motoring and visiting the famous hot mineral springs.

Mrs. W. H. Preston is visiting in Oakland with friends.

William Boitano, former hard drink manipulator in the Valley of the Moon, who, it is claimed, turned against his brother bootleggers in the Valley and has departed from our midst some time ago, issued in-

SEWER AND WATER PROBLEM

Now that Santa Rosa seems to have satisfied the State Board of Health as to its sewage disposal, it may be possible for Sonoma to avoid that contemplated $30,000 bond issue. Petaluma defeated a bond election for sewer purposes Tuesday by a 2 to 1 vote.

If our city could turn its attention to the acquirement and development of a municipal water supply, we believe the people would authorize a bond issue for that purpose. Here is the possibility of some revenue, some thing that the City of Sonoma needs badly. Furthermore, we must develop our water supply if the city is to grow and keep pace with other desirable residence places. The present company is not financially able to expand, and sooner or later will fall into the hands of a croporation which will not only raise rates, but will distribute our present wonderful, health-giving spring water, the best in the entire State, to outside consumers or mix it with drain water of some other supply before serving it to us and other customers.

Sonoma's greatest advantage over all other California communities is its wonderful water.

We must make our sewage disposal system thoroughly acceptable to the health althorities, but if we can do so without bonding ourselves with a $30,000 debt it would only seem sensible. We could then devote attention to other ground floor community expansion, such as water supply—a very interesting problem from a viewpoint of finance, conservation and utility.

Tomorrow is Mother's Day, the unsung heroine of all days and for all time. Surfeited with all sorts of holidays and observance dates, here is one calendar event which all opinions approve. Honor thy mother through all the 365 days of the year, not with the bestowal of flowers, perhaps, or the writing of a letter, but with heart and love in the daily thanksgiving for her love and influence.

Now that Mrs. Bones has been freed in the liquor case we presume there will at least be no skeleton in the Bones closet.

SCHELLVILLE NEWS

Ed Hoegemann of San Francisco visited his parents and his sister and family Sunday.

Mrs. Ed Clements was a San Francisco visitor last Friday.

Mrs. Len Thomas and daughter of Stockton are spending the week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Helberg.

Jack Wilson has been ill with a severe cold, but is recovering.

Frank Hanley of San Francisco spent the week end here with his father.

The White Shell Club met at the home of Mrs. C. Jessen on Friday afternoon. Delicious refreshments were served and the usual afternoon program on the radio greatly enjoyed by the members.

Robert Edwards of San Francisco motored up Sunday and spent the day with his grandfather, J. Hanley.

The Tony Keiser and Tony Marcucci families motored to Bolinas on Sunday.

Jim McAndrews and wife, the former Hermina Steiger, his father and his sister Celia, motored to the home of Mrs. McAndrew's brother, Erhard Steiger, where they spent Sunday. Mr. McAndrews, who is 85 years old is hale and hearty and used to drive the stage between Santa Rosa and Sonoma.

A large number of friends from this section are looking forward to an enjoyable afternoon on Thursday, May 14th, when Mrs. Perle Erazmus will be hostess to the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church of Sonoma.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Daly of Santa Rosa were guests of the Joe Keisers last Friday.

E. E. Bennett, formerly of Schellville, but now living in San Jose, visited here Monday and Tuesday with friends.

J. Tobiason was tendered a pleasant surprise by Sonoma Valley and San Francisco friends Saturday evening, who gathered at his home and spent a most enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Potter were Santa Rosa visitors Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keiser spent Sunday in Solano county.

Will Clements of Sunnyvale was a week end guest at Eden Dale ranch.

Mrs. Perle Erazmus, Mrs. Miller and Miss Ida Miller were among the motorists here last Friday.

J. Seger of San Francisco spent Tuesday and Wednesday with Mrs. Seger here.

The Flying Needles were delightfully entertained at the home of Miss J. Cooper on Wednesday afternoon.

A. C. Frederick and Larry Wagner can serve as nice a dinner as anyone. On last Wednesday evening the two gentlemen invited Mrs. Perle Erazmus, her mother, Mrs. Miller, and sister, Miss Ida Miller, to dinner, and it was an elaborate affair, with snowy linen, gleaming silver and beautiful decorations. The gentlemen reside on the former Burg place.

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Gustafson and son, Mr. and Mrs. James Lapthorn and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Parker all of San Francisco, were dinner guests at the Ivan Anderson home on Sunday.

DANCE AT GLEN ELLEN TONIGHT

Tonight, the second Saturday evening of May, is the date of the dance of the Glen Ellen Women's Improvement Club, at Glen Ellen. A large crowd is expected, as these dances each month become more popular.

SONOMA VALLEY GRANGE

Sonoma Valley Grange will meet next Monday evening in Castagnasso Hall, Broadway, Sonoma.

This organization met with its first loss in the accidental death of our worthy Brother Hall. The home of Brother and Sister Peterson has also been bereaved in the loss of their only daughter. The members of the Grange extend these bereaved families their sincere sympathy.

At our next meeting the charter will be draped in memory of our late Brother Hall.

PARENTE'S GYMNASIUM TURNING OUT WINNERS

Pete Finnegan, who won in the boxing bout at San Francisco Wednesday night and with a left handed knockout got the decision over his adversary, 15 pounds heavier, is a product of Parente's gymnasium. Louis Parente picked the 21 year old youngster for a good one, and now all the sport writers agree with Parente that his boy is "the class." He was training at Verano for the past two months, and is scheduled to go up against some good ones.

Mr. Parente announces a public workout by Eddy Roberts and Johnny Jordan, who with their manager, Ben Ford, will be in action at the El Verano gymnasium at 2:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

Word comes from Oakland that Sal Carlo fought a draw in that city Wednesday night.

vitations last week to his marriage to Miss Melva Scott, in San Francisco. Many guests were invited to 25 Hoff avenue, where Melva and Willie, it is said, had been dealing it hot from the still. They were just leaving the house with their guests to call on the parson when prohibition agents walked in on them and the wedding march was made to the Mission police station where the couple was released on $1000 bail. A quantity of liquor was held as evidence.

Fred Jensen, local cattle dealer, was transacting business in Santa Rosa on Friday of last week.

Theodore Pohm, of San Francisco was a week end visitor at the Pohm Brothers' ranch in West El Verano.

A number of local anglers whipped the streams in this vicinity on the opening day of the trout season, and some nice fish were caught.

M. Datti and son of San Francisco are enjoying their annual vacation in the Valley of the Moon.

Mrs. R. Gatto, sister of A. Chelini, is spending the week at the Chelini home on Riverside Drive.

Albert Rossi, auto camp proprietor at Bodega Bay, was in town over the week end.

Mrs. Cassidy and daughter and a party of friends were spending several days at their newly built summer home on Nob Hill.

Jake Steckmeyer, local contractor, has completed two tank towers, one for Mr. Howard and one for Mr. Higsby, of Buena Vista.

Joe Chelini and wife of San Francisco motored to Sonoma Valley on Sunday and visited at the A. Chelini home.

John Nufer of Oakland arrived the first of the week at his summer home on Riverside Drive. Mrs. Nufer and other relatives are coming later to spend the summer months.

Frank M. Burris, Sonoma banker, was a visitor in El Verano Tuesday.

CLUB HAS FINE OUTING AT FETTERS SPRINGS

Swimming, dancing, a picnic luncheon and initiation of three candidates were features of the meeting of the Joy Club, held Friday at Fetters Springs. The Misses Elsie Moore and Grace Wright of Sebastopol and William Patterson are the new members. Doc Hewitt's Joy Club orchestra furnished the music. Miss Alta Cox, secretary, was in charge of the arrangements for the affair.

BETTER AND BETTER

Dependable ten years ago, and five years ago, and more dependable than ever today, Dodge Brothers Motor Car simply represents the latest phase in a process of continual betterment.

The first cars Dodge Brothers built established a world-wide reputation. The cars they are building today incorporate the accumulated refinements of those ten intervening years.

That important improvements in the comfort and appearance of the car are made from time to time, implies no basic departure from Dodge Brothers traditional policy of progressive rather than seasonal development.

Where are the SUPERSTITIONS OF YESTERYEAR?

Superstitions don't last long, especially when it costs money to believe in them.

For example, the majority of western motorists have long since stopped paying tribute to the superstition that there is something mysteriously "better" about "eastern" motor oils merely because they cost more and are made in the East.

Zerolene is First Choice of Western Motorists

Zerolene lubricates more motor cars in the Pacific Coast states—high and low priced cars alike—than any other oil made. Six out of the seven trophies in the 1924 Yosemite Economy Run were won by Zerolene-lubricated cars. The "anti-western" oil bogie simply doesn't hold up. Zerolene increases gasoline mileage, reduces upkeep costs and lengthens engine life, in high priced cars and motor trucks alike.

Why pay tribute to a superstition? Insist on *Zerolene even if it does cost less.

DEATH SUMMONS PROMINENT MEN

noma Expositor-Forum, died at the Burnsdale Sanitarium Monday following an illness diagnosed as pneumonia. He was found to be in a critical condition last Saturday and was hurried to the hospital for treatment. However, his heart, long weakened by his general infirmity, continued to grow weaker and Monday morning he passed away.

Mr. Hose was a native of New York state, but came to California from Colorado, where he had followed the newspaper and printing business. He first settled at Petaluma, where he worked on several of the papers and was highly regarded. About 20 years ago deceased came to Sonoma, where he engaged in the publication of the Expositor with Mr. Newman, then owner of the paper. After Newman's leavetaking, Hose continued to carry on the work of publishing the weekly and eventually acquired it. He subsequently merged his publication with the Forum, taking in Henry Watters as a partner. The partnership did not prove successful and subsequently the paper went into the hands of a receiver with the result that Orville Hose became its solep roprietor.

Mr. Hose was a good workman and progressive citizen. Endowed with wonderful courage and a spirit of optimism, despite his crippled condition (the result of an accident when he was a young man) he carried on his business without complaint and with loyal devotion to its every interest. Of late he had not been as active in the work as had been his custom, but he virtually died in the midst of his duties. The sufferer did not seem to realize that the Death Angel was about to write finis in his book of life, and up to the last he smiled and exchanged pleasantries with those around him.

All that was mortal of Orville Lincoln Hose was consigned to eternal rest in Mountain Cemetery Wednesday. Funeral services were from the Bates undertaking parlors, where many beautiful flowers covered the casket, over which Rev. I. Cookman spoke with sincere eloquence. Appropriate hymns were sung by Mrs. Bancroft and daughter.

A brother, Franklin Hose, of Oakland, and wife attended the last sad rites.

Joseph Engisch

After many weeks illness, Joseph Engisch, prominent resident of Sonoma Vista, where he and his wife have conducted the Nordwell Avenue Resort, passed away Sunday. The death of Mr. Engisch was not unexpected, but almost to the last he was conscious and recognized the friends and lodge brothers and sisters who came to inquire for him. His devoted wife kept vigil at his bedside throughout his illness and everything possible was done by doctors and nurses to alleviate his suffering. Death was due to Bright's disease.

Deceased was a native of Wurtenberg, Germany, and had resided in this country for many years. Coming here from San Francisco, Mr. Engisch made many friends and was honored by high offices, in both the Redmen and Hermann Sons lodges. He was a kindly, genial man, loyal friend and hospitable host.

He is survived by a widow, the former Mrs. Agusta Moebes, and several nieces and nephews. He was 61 years of age.

The funeral was held in San Francisco under the auspices of the Order of Redmen, with cremation at Cypress Lawn. Many Sonoma Valley friends attended the last sad rites.

George Diebold

George Diebold, for many years a resident of Agua Caliente, and widely known throughout Sonoma Valley, died Sunday after a prolonged illness. He was 74 years of age.

Mr. Diebold had been in poor health for several years, and last year married his faithful nurse and neighbor that he might leave her his property. Believed to be a deathbed marriage at that time, the groom rallied and although under the care of his doctor almost continually, was able to be up and around until recently.

There were funeral services at the I. O. O. F. Hall for deceased here on Tuesday, after which the remains were shipped to San Mateo county for cremation.

Mr. Diebold was a native of France. He had resided in Sonoma Valley for over 30 years.

Frank J. DeMartini

Frank DeMartini, old time resident of Sonoma and father of George and Angelo DeMartini, Sonoma butchers, died at his home here yesterday after a lingering illness.

He was born in San Francisco on January 18, 1870, and had a large circle of friends and relatives who mourn his passing. Besides the sons, one of whom is president of Sonoma Parlor No. 111, Native Sons of the Golden West, he leaves a widow, Mary DeMartini, and three daughters, Mrs. Leonora Baccagalupi, Mrs. Romilda Messina and Evelyn DeMartini also two sisters, Mrs. J. Biagi and Mrs. Molly Topete.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p. m., from his late home, with interment in Mountain cemetery.

SEWAGE FARM GIVEN A ONE YEAR PERMIT

The State Board of Health last Saturday unanimously voted a temporary permit for the operation of the Santa Rosa sewer farm for one year. If at the end of this period the plant is functioning as satisfactorily as it is at present the permit will be made permanent, it is stated.

In the event of a permanent permit being given it will mean a saving of $165,000 to the City of Santa Rosa which was voted for the construction of a new sewage disposal system.

Joseph P. Berry, city attorney, appeared before a meeting of the Board of Health in San Francisco last Saturday when detailed plans of the system and plans of the city officials for the improvement of the plant were laid before the board members by the city attorney and met with instant approval.

Two members of the board, Dr. Fred F. Gundrum and W. M. Dickey made a visit to Santa Rosa on April 18th and announced that they wished to familiarize themselves with the con ditions at the city's disposal plant. After a thorough investigation of the plant they expressed themselves as satisfied with the efforts being made to properly dispose of the sewage and praised officials in charge for the excellent work.

The visitors remarks at the cleanliness of the city property and the absence of odors and stated that they could not see any reason for opposition being offered to the plants.

The installation of the chlorination to overcome complaints from nearby residents has completely removed any objections that might be found with the sewage farm.

Mayor Dunbar and members of the city council are of the belief that contemplated extensions of the plant to care for the increased population of the city and subsequent greater flow of sewage, will care fo rthe needs of the city for an indefinite period. Prominent engineers who have been called in to make a study of the system have backed up the opinion of Mayor Dunbar.

With the building of additional tanks on the city's 100 acre farm, west of the city, and the keeping of the chlorination plant in constant operation, the needs of the city can be tak" en care of for many years, say those that have made a complete study of the situation.

No definite decision has been reached by the present officials as to what disposition should be made of the $165,000 now available. It was voted by the people, and before it is expended it will again be put to a vote of the people—Santa Rosa Republican.

MANY LAND OFFICES ABOLISHED ON MAY 1

Beginning May 1st, the government will conduct its public land business with 45 instead of 84 local land offices, located in the various states and Alaska.

Abolition of 39 local land offices was effective on May 1st as a result of executive orders issued by the president and recommendations of the Secretary in the Interior and the Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Reduction in the annual appropriations for the operation of the General Land Office approximating $617,000 by congress and a survey inaugurated by Secretary Work of the Interior Department into public land affairs is responsible for discontinuing these offices, many of which could have been legally discontinued several years ago.

This survey shows that not only has the public domain been diminishing at an average rate of 10,000,000 acres annually, but that receipts for the disposal of public lands had fallen off approximately 85 per cent during the last 20 years. The survey further showed that notwithstanding this decline in public land business, the government had been maintaining the same number of local land offices in the various states as previously when receipts were very large and an active demand for public land had existed.

It was also found that there had been a particular loss in the business of the local land offices during the past five years, the amount of public land disposed of in many of them not being sufficient to justify the expense of their future operation. This situation was reflected in the general decline of applications for homestead entries of every character, auctions of public lands, filings and applications on the public domain. 9 compilation of figures at the General Land Office revealed the fact that original homestead entries had fallen off from 48,532 in 1920 to 13,886 in 1924; stock-raising entries from 20,979 in 1920 to 7006 in 1924; desert land entries from 1026 in 1920 to 317 in 1924; public land auctions from 2339 in 1920 to 423 in 1924; and land sales on abandoned military resevations fom 160 in 1920 to six in 1924.

Discontinuance of these local land offices was based on whether the receipts and the amount of public land under their control justified their continuance. In each case where a local land office was abolished, its land, business and archives were transferred to a nearby office in the same state so that the inconvenience to the public was reduced to the minimum.

Of the 48 states in the Union. only 20 now have local land offices, exclusive of the Territory of Alaska, where three offices are maintained. The last remaining land offices were discontinued in the states of Kansas, Michigan and Wisconsin, where practically all of the public land has been taken up. The business of these offices were transferred to the General Land Office at Washington.

„Secretary Work announced that messages received by the General Land Office indicate that the transfer of files, archives and records of the abolished local land offices had been practically made in the various states and the consolidated offices would be prepared to handle the combined work on May 1st.

It is expected that a few additional offices will be discontinued after the re-organization of the General Land Office and the re-adjustment of the public land business has been completed.

J. P. McDONNELL'S SON HAS NARROW ESCAPE

The light touring car in which they were riding going over an 80 foot grade near Monte Rio Saturday evening of last week, Stewart McDonnell son of J. P. McDonnell of Sebastopol, prominent apple man, and Earl Wyatt, Analy high school youth, escaped with but minor injuries.

The boys were returning to Sebastopol from a fishing trip. While going around a turn, the steering gear of the car is said to have broken, with the result that the car went over the bank. The automobile was demolished.

The accident ocurred near the Savious tavern, a spot near whih many accidents have taken place. The fact that the youths escaped injury is considered miraculous, in that the car was a complete wreck. The two boys had been fishing near Cazadero, and were on their way to Sebastopol when the accident occurred.

MANY PARTICIPATE IN UTILITY OWNERSHIP

A very recent canvass of a dozen of the largest operating gas and electric companies in California reveals that these utilities are owned by over 129,000 stockholders, of whom more than 110,000 are actual residents of the state. Assuming that each stockholder represents an average family of four, it follows that one family out of every 10 in California is part owner of the companies which furnish gas and electric service.

The par value of stock of these companies outstanding in the hands of the general public at the close of 1924 was $229,581,000, and it is safe to say that the actual market value was very close to this figure, the common stocks of the three largest utility companies now being quoted at a premium. The average investment is about 18 shares per stockholder.

In addition to these very numerous partners in California utility enterprises, there are, of course, thousands of others who own bonds of public service companies. The Pacific Gas and Electric Company, or example, has between 40,000 and 50,000 bond holders, as against 32,000 stockholders. Aside from this direct ownership there is a still more widespread interest, less direct and apparent, but nonetheless real, through the very substantial holdings of insurance companies, banks an dother institutions whose investments in the securities of these companies represent, in the aggregate, the savings of an immense number of policy holders and savings bank depositors.

As an illustration of the extent of this indirect proprietorship, there may be cited the case of one of the most important of America's life insurance companies, which owns upwards of $2,000,000 face value of the bonds of the state's largest utility. If it is assumed, for the sake of argument, that the average policy holder is insured for $4000, and that half of the aggregate premiums due on each policy have been paid to the insurance company, this single block of bonds represents the equity, invested for their protection, of at least a thousand policy holders. This estimate is probably conservative, but it seryes to emphasize the manner in which this indirect ownership of public utility companies is distributed among a vast number of people.

Countless thousands of individuals all over the United States are learning to invest their savings in stocks and bonds. In 1910 there were 7,000,000 stockholders in this country. Today there are aver 15,000,000.

One factor contributing strongly toward this widespread dissemination of securities among the mass of the people is the "customer ownership plans," initiated by the Pacific Gas and Electric Company in 1914. A that time the company had 3000 stock holders with average holdings of 131 shares. There are now over 32,000 partners in this enterprise, with average holdings of about 30 shares each. The whole trend of industrial enterprise is definitely in the direction of a more and more general participation in coporate ownership on the part of people in every station of life.

CORNERSTONE LAYING WAS POSTPONED

Although the cornerstone laying ceremonies at the California Pythian Home, set for May 3rd, were postponed to a later date in this month, there was a monster gathering of Pythians and their families and friends at Kenwood last Sunday. When the count was taken, 332 automobiles were parked near the picnic grounds, and more arrived later.

The Knights of Pythias Band, of 30 pieces, under direction of Charles O. Scott, rendered an excellent concert of high grade music which was greatly enjoyed by the hundreds of parties who enjoyed basket luncheon beneath the trees, enjoying the beauties of one of the prettiest outing spots in the state.

The buildings and home property were inspected and the members of the Order from far and near enjoyed a perfect day.

Mrs. H. Fox (Margaret McDevitt) has returned to Summit in the high Sierras after a visit here with her mother.

NOT GUILTY OF RECEIVING LIQUOR

A verdict of "not guilty" of receiving stolen goods was returned late Monday by the jury in the trial of Mrs. Maude Bones, of Petaluma, accused by county officers of having received two kegs of whisky, stolen by her son, Lloyd Mellus, from the yard of the county jail at Santa Rosa. The jury was out two hours and 38 minutes. There were several Sonoma jurors, including two Sonoma women.

With the acquittal of Mrs. Bones, only one person remains to face trial of the four arrested by county officers in their investigation of the theft of liquor from the storeyard at the ajil last February. Lloyd Mellus, son of Mrs. Bones, is now serving out a year's term on a statutory charge, a parole having been revoked when he was arrested as the person who stole the two kegs of moonshine. He is to face trial on a petty larceny charge when his present term expires late this month. Jurors were:

Mrs. Rose Pinelli, Mrs. Emma A. Leiser, Harry J. Keegan, John W. Near, Frank A. Campbell, Serafino Caenobbia, Eli Corillo, George Marki, Charles I. Bacon, Harlow Sacry, Milton Saare and Henry J. Dado.
